The cry is again going up, "Hold your cotton!" Men who go around "spitting cotton" will please take notice.

The twelve solid Southern States will dam the landslide so it can't slop over on the genuine article—the real Dixie land.

An exchange's interrogation: "What is the matter with Tom Watson?" Oh, Tom's got a circumscription of ideas and a circumlocution of elaboration.

An exchange says: "If the surgeon's knife will cure a thief of the propensity to steal, what is the remedy for wife beaters?" The axe hasn't got an equal.

Anything to be thankful for on Thanksgiving Day? Cert. We should be thankful that we are not as other men are who didn't know enough to vote for Judge Parker.

If all the Republican statesmen didn't lose their sand in the landslide, some of them may be bold enough to accuse Roosevelt of being a white elephant instead of the genuine G. O. P. pachyderm.

Panama is going on with its foolishness and is trying to do another revolution stunt contrary to our advice that the landslide over here meant that they must lie down as one man.

General Kuroki denies the Russian report that he was killed by the splinter of a shell. However, it is mighty easy for a Russian to believe that Kuroki doesn't know what it was that hit him.

It is to be presumed now that there will not be many Democratic Peters who will beat themselves in their craven breasts and prevaricate about catching the landslide by the forelock in order to take a ride with Roosevelt.

Says the Washington Post: "We knew it had come. The Chicago Journal offers the inevitable editorial commencing: "Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away." We don't mind it just so the victor don't rob the corpse.

We have been asked to explain the cause of the Roosevelt landslide. Why, we dug too far under the foundation of the Republican mountain of iniquity and the blamed thing caved in on us before we could play a return engagement.

Judge Parker has hung out his law shingle in New York. The iridescence of the evanescent Presidency wasn't sufficient to shut his eye up to business. The equapois of our candidate was one of his qualities that we always bragged about.

The morning after the election we met an old soak, who held out his hand and said: "Gimme the price of a drink; I lost everything I had on Prrker!" As our briny tears overflowed into his dandy palm he went off to "work the other side," with the air of one who painfully realized that we were also in it when Cortelyou rocked the boat.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Rev. A. D. McClure, D.D., expects to preach in East Wilmington to-morrow at 3:30 P. M.

— The yacht Roberta was in at Little River, S. C., yesterday morning on her way South. She left Southport Thursday.

— Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the W. L. I. armory.

— Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., expects to return this evening from Synod and to preach in his pulpit tomorrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

— Mr. R. S. Parker, of the A. C. L. passenger department, left yesterday morning for Tarboro to look out for the transportation of the circus employes, who will be discharged at that point, when Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' shows disband there to day.

— Pender Chronicle: "From the way lumber is being hauled here for Mr. W. J. Moore, it begins to look like he is going to have a mammoth hotel at the beach. Mr. E. W. Ward is running two teams daily bringing it to the railroad at Burgaw."

— Robert Daly, a sailor from the British steamer Mokta, was locked up at the police station yesterday afternoon at the request of the captain through the British Vice Consul. Daly got on a spree soon after reaching port and the master of the steamer wants him to remain in the lock-up until he is sober.

— Only two cases engaged the attention of the Mayor in the police court yesterday. A negro sailor, drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs. A negro boy who had been amusing himself shooting at the neighbors' chicken with an air rifle, was given a sound lecture and told to go his way, but never to be caught in the police court again.

At The Recruiting Office.

The recruiting office for the United States Navy opened Thursday in the Postoffice building, is not doing the rush business that was expected. Only nine applications have thus far been received and seven of those had to be rejected because the applicants were unable to come up to the physical requirements. The two others will be given further examination by an assistant surgeon here and, if they pass they will be sent on to one of the naval stations for final examination. The Navy offers many attractions to the young men of the country but Uncle Sam is very jealous of the physique of his sailors and unless the requirements are met fully they will not be received.

Preach Temperance Sermon.

At the First Baptist church Sunday night, Pastor Fred D. Hale will preach the last in the series of four Sunday night sermons. The text will be, "Look not Upon the Wine When it is Red, for at Last it Biteth like a Serpent and Stingeth like an Adder." It is the purpose of Dr. Hale to show the evils resulting from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and a special invitation is extended to those who do not believe in and practice total abstinence. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The ordinance of baptism will be administered just before the sermon.

Jap Struck a Sailor.

One of the Mikado's subjects, S. Wualda, by name, was at the police station yesterday, charged with an assault. Wualda is steward on the British barque "Musselcrag," and yesterday a sailor applied an epithet to him that he couldn't take. The Jap landed a blow on the sailor and the sailor came down to the police station and secured a warrant for the Oriental. Sergeant George H. Ward went down and served the warrant, but Captain Robeson, of the barque, became surety for his steward until police court to-day at noon.

No Authority to Lease.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in adjourned session at the City Hall last night and discussed several matters of importance but nothing definite was accomplished. The matter of the lease of the city docks was brought up, but an opinion from the City Attorney was given to the effect that the city had no right to let the public docks without the authority of a special act of the Legislature, which will doubtless be asked for at the forthcoming session in January. All members of the Board were present at the meeting last night.

Will Wed at Maxton.

Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city: "Mr. and Mrs. Edward McRae request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Annie Lane to Mr. Rufus M. Williams on Wednesday afternoon, November the thirtieth nineteen hundred and four at five o'clock, Presbyterian church Maxton, North Carolina."

ONSLOW BOND SUIT.

Respondent Commissioners and Treasurer File Answer to the Complaint.

IN FEDERAL COURT HERE.

Many Technical Points Raised as to Invalidity of Obligations in Matter of Issue to Old Newbern Railroad. Election Alleged Illegal.

Messrs. Duffie & Koonce, W. D. McIver and E. K. Bryan, solicitors for the respondent commissioners, in the case of D. H. Tolman, complainant, against the Board of Commissioners of Onslow county and E. W. Summerall, treasurer, in which it is sought to enforce payment of interest upon certain bonds voted by the county to the old Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Railroad Company, which bonds the commissioners are attempting to repudiate by a suit now in the State courts, yesterday filed their answer to the complaint lodged in the Federal Court here last September.

The complaint is a voluminous document of some twenty typewritten pages. The respondents admit the controversy but say that it is not true that they or the county of Onslow are due holders of interest coupons or are indebted to the complainant in any sum for interest on the said coupons; that the respondents have no knowledge as to whether the complainant is engaged in buying and selling bonds or that he bought those in question in open market without any suggestion of their being void, fraudulent or otherwise invalid, as complained of, and that the complainant is held to strict proof thereof. Further answering the second paragraph of the complaint, the respondents say that it is not true that the complainant bought a large number of bonds of the county of Onslow and interest coupons, nor are the bonds and coupons the bonds and coupons of the county of Onslow. The allegations in the third paragraph of the complaint are also denied, but the respondents say it is true that there is in circulation, in the hands of person unknown, 20 bonds of $1,000 each and 40 of $500 each, numbered from 1 to 60, due on Jan. 1st, 1936, and bearing interest at 6 per cent. until paid, and that the said bonds contain an operation to the county of Onslow to redeem any or all of said series at any interest period after ten years from the date thereof and which are dated Jan. 1st, 1895, but the respondents say that they are advised by counsel, learned in the law, that the said bonds and coupons are not the obligations of the county of Onslow. Further answering the same paragraph, it is alleged that the bonds were not legally executed in that the necessary resolution authorizing the execution was not passed by the commissioners and that the bonds were not signed by a majority of the Board; that the bonds purport to be negotiable instruments when as a matter of fact the act of the Legislature did not authorize such issue; that the county was authorized only to subscribe to certain stock of the railroad and as a matter of fact the county of Onslow never subscribed for a single share of the stock and the bonds were not executed or delivered in payment for subscription to capital stock. It is also alleged that there is a conflict between the act and the bonds, in that one prescribes the payment of interest annually and the other semi-annually. It is further alleged that the bonds were never presented to the Board of Commissioners of Onslow county in meeting assembled for execution but that the said bonds were prepared in pursuance to the resolution and after they were prepared, were delivered to the chairman, who, without authority from the Board, and without the approval of the Board as to form and contents, signed the same and caused the treasurer and clerk of the Board of County Commissioners to affix the corporate seal of the county, and that the said bonds, nor the contents of the same, was even known to the Board of Commissioners until the institution of this suit when the complainant attached to his bill what purports to be a copy of the said bonds; that while it is true the Commissioners have levied a tax and paid the interest until Jan. 1st, 1904, it was done through a misapprehension and that after advice from counsel, an action was started in the Superior Court, enjoining the treasurer from further payment.

For many matters, specifically set out, of which the respondents have no knowledge, they ask that the complainant be held to strict proof thereof. It is denied that the complainant is the legal holder of the bonds and coupons in controversy. It is further set up by the respondents that the act of the Legislature authorizing the bond issue was not passed in the General Assembly according to the constitution, readings the three several days and the "yeas" and "nays" not having recorded. The respondents also set up that a majority of the votes in the bond election in the county were not for the issuance of the bonds and that there were other irregularities in the holding of the said election.

Messrs. Rountree & Carr of this city, represent the complainant in the action and, all in all, not only the interest but the face value of something like $40,000 in bonds is involved in the litigation. The case will likely go to the highest court in the land for final adjudication.

Bad Negro Stevedore.

George Smith, a bad negro stevedore under the influence of liquor, wanted to make a "rough house" out of the compress yesterday morning and in consequence of his ambition to be the "bully" of the squad in which he was working, he now lies in the common jail of the county awaiting trial in the Superior Court upon commitment of Justice Fowler charging him with an assault with a deadly weapon and carrying a concealed weapon. Smith assaulted two of his fellow workmen at the compress and wound up by brandishing a pistol in their faces. Constable Savage went down to make the arrest and took the revolver off the person of the negro.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The local cotton market declined to 9½c. for middling yesterday. Receipts were 2,871 bales against 1,761 same day last season. All items of naval stores for the week show a falling except spirits in which there is a gain from 243 to 868 casks. The receipts of spirits for the crop year also show a gain with rosin and crude.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

HAMAN BLOCKER ARRESTED.

Walter Farmer, a young white man of excellent family in Greene county who came down from Goldsboro yesterday to "see the sights of the city," as he expressed it, was knocked down, severely beaten and robbed on the highway leading to Hilton Park, just beyond the Hilton Lumber Company's mill, at an early hour, in broad daylight, yesterday afternoon. Haman Blocker, a notoriously bad negro with a record as black as the inky countenance which he bears, is locked up at the station house, charged with the assault and robbery, having been arrested by Policemen A. D. Smith and C. E. Wood before night.

Farmer is perhaps 23 or 24 years of age and came to the city alone. He had been taking in the sights along the wharf, intending to return home on the evening train. He finally wound up in "Dross Neck" and went to Chapman's bar at Second and Brunswick streets, where he was joined by Blocker, who volunteered to act as the young man's guide for further sight-seeing, embracing that opportunity to inveigle him into all sorts of dives, and finally persuading him to go out to the lumber mills and the park further up the river.

Farmer says when he got just beyond the Hilton Lumber Mill, Blocker, who had won his confidence and had secured a pint of gin on the strength of it, quietly told him that he (Blocker) was a robber. Farmer remarded "well, don't rob me," but he said that all at once Blocker took him unawares by grabbing him around the legs and pitching him headlong forwards. The young man said the negro then jumped on him and beat him severely about the head and face, evidently with brass knucks, as his forehead and scalp bore several bruises and one or two slight cuts. The young man said he was dazed at first, but came to his senses as the negro was going through his pockets. He was relieved of $2.80 in cash and a silver open-face watch and chain. Farmer said he begged the negro to give him back part of the property and he could keep the balance, but the black man made no response. The negro went his way and Farmer hurried back into the city as quick as possible. The first officer he met was Policeman A. D. Smith to whom he reported the robbery, giving a description of the negro.

Policemen Smith and Wood immediately went to work on the case and found that Blocker had been seen with the stranger in Chapman's place.

Later a colored woman living in the neighborhood, saw the policemen pass and she called to them, informing the officers that Blocker had told her that he had robbed a countryman. Later the officers located the negro at the house of "Queen Victoria", a notorious colored woman, where he pretended to be in bed asleep. He was made to dress and was brought down to the station house. Young Farmer was sent for and he at once identified Blocker as the man who knocked him down and took what he had. Blocker denies his guilt but the evidence against him appears well nigh conclusive. He will be given preliminary trial in the Mayor's court to-day at noon.

Behrends-Riley Furniture Co.

In the Raleigh telegram to the STAR yesterday morning, the name of Mr. S. Behrends was inadvertently omitted by the correspondent as one of the incorporators of the Behrends-Riley Furniture Co. As a matter of fact, Mr. Behrends, is one of the principal incorporators of the company and brings with his capital into the business a large experience as a furniture dealer as well as a gentleman of fine executive qualifications. The new company will meet for organization in a day or two.

TO ENFORCE PRECAUTIONS.

Vaccination Made Compulsory for Contacts by Sanitary Board.

Merely as a matter of precaution in case the authority should be realsted, the County Sanitary Board, composed of the Commissioners and Drs. D. W. Bulluck, E. J. Wood and W. D. McMillan, met yesterday afternoon and decided upon compulsory vaccination for all persons who had come in contact with a patient sent out to the pest house from near Delgado Thursday afternoon. Dr. McMillan related the case, the patient being a man from Mt. Tabor, N. C., who came to attend a funeral, sat up all night with the corpse and went to the service over the remains the following morning. Dr. McMillan stated that a spread of the disease was hardly probable as the man was not in the contagious state when he was among the people, yet he felt that every precaution should be taken.

Inasmuch as there was a disposition on the part of some to resist the vaccination, the Board adopted a resolution pledging its support to Dr. McMillan, the superintendent of health. There was a discussion of who would be the proper officer to enforce the vaccination order and the chairman of the Board was instructed to ascertain and act accordingly.

with our trade. After his nomination—one month before election—the demand greatly increased. But since his triumphant election, we have been overwhelmed with orders, many of which we could not fill.

The factory is six weeks behind with its deliveries. But by great, good fortune and everlasting clamoring for our regular orders to be delivered, and sending RUSH ORDERS FOR MORE SHOES, we will have by next steamer the largest shipment of these goods we ever had; which will give us, by far, the best assortment we ever had. We hope then, to be able to take good care of every order we get. We have many hundreds of pairs on our shelves now, however, and may be able to give you JUST WHAT YOU WANT.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 19.

THE SOUTH WILL STAND PAT.

The STAR has had its say about the proposition of the Republican party to cut down Southern representation in Congress and in the Electoral College. We believe the Roosevelt crowd meant what it laid down in that plank in their national platform and that they will make a big effort to carry it out. We believe that in doing so they will butt into difficulties to be found in the constitution itself and in decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States. If, however, Congress should pass a bill to cut down representation, and it holds good before the Supreme Court, by the beard of the prophet, the South will stand pat in submitting to any reduction rather than endanger its political and social conditions by letting down the bars to ignorant and corrupt suffrage. We will stand pat in self defence.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot remarks that with the characteristic ability which marks its editorials, the Baltimore Sun points out that the Southern States are by no means "solid" against the leading policies of the Republican party, but that what really unites the South is "an instinct of self defence" against interference with the local race question. Says the Sun:

"To-day the South is the most American and most patriotic part of the Union. If the circumstances as respects the race question are peculiar, this is not its fault, but the result of historical causes over which it had no control. It desires only to be let alone to solve in peace the economic problems with which it is concerned. It desires to co operate with the other States of the Union in public affairs, sharing the common life of the nation and participating with the rest in its benefits. At present the South enjoys a large measure of material prosperity. Its agriculture, mines, manufactures, lumbering interests and railways are being rapidly developed. Capital is being accumulated locally and outside capital is pouring in. Movement, energy, progress and hopefulness—these are the characteristics of the situation that strike all who travel in Dixie at the present time. The Southern people are, in fact, absorbed in the industrial problems that confront them and do not wish to be diverted into the barren field of national politics. Time was when the Southern States were leaders in the field; but they no longer aspire to such leading, being content to occupy themselves with their local material interests. The statesman who applauded the red ruin of the reconstruction policy on the ground that he wished to reduce the Southern people to such a state of domestic wretchedness that they would no longer be interested in national politics succeeded in his purpose only too well. The losses of the reconstruction era are not yet made good. Material well being is still the engrossing task."

The Virginian-Pilot goes on to say: "The Sun is undoubtedly correct. All that the South wants, needs or asks for is to be let alone to develop its marvelous resources and work out the economic problems with which it alone is concerned. It wishes to be left to solve the race problem in its own peculiar way, believing that its intimate acquaintance with the negro will enable it to solve the problem as the people of no other section of the country can, not having this acquaintance to aid them in the solution."

The Norfolk Landmark adds this to the discussion:

"Naturally, in view of the fact that the Republican national platform contains a plank in favor of inquiry into the suffrage laws of Southern States, interest is newly aroused in the Crumpacker movement to reduce the representation of these States in the lower House of Congress.

"Some political commentators, recalling that the President ignored this subject in all his campaign utterances, are of opinion that nothing will be done. Others think that nothing can be done because of the confused condition of the Federal law bearing on the matter. Still others, like the Boston Transcript (Rep.) strongly depreciate any action along the Crumpacker line, holding that it would defeat its own end.

"The Transcript argues that if Congress reduces Southern representation on the ground that the ballot has been taken away from colored voters, this very legislation of Congress would recognize disfranchisement as an accomplished fact, and would leave the South free to mask disfranchisement complete. The Washington Post, (Ind.) expresses the opinion that the Fifteenth Amendment repeals and supersedes the Fourteenth, and that the whole question of Southern franchise qualifications is a matter for the Courts to decide. At every test in the United States Supreme Court the suffrage provisions of the Southern States have been pronounced legal.

"Thus, it is seen that the question is in a very tangled condition, and that the Crumpacker element, even when the Republican majority in Congress is overwhelming, will not easily accomplish its purpose. Another complication is the fact that Massachusetts and several other Republican States have suffrage qualifications which, while perhaps not operating to reduce the electorate very greatly, cannot be overlooked in any law such as the Crumpackerites would like to pass.

"So far as the South is concered, it seems to us that there is no occasion to worry over the movement for the reduction of its representation. Even if successful, which is not very likely, the movement will not seriously hurt the South. We are just as hopelessly outnumbered in Congress as matters stand now as we should be if our representation was twenty or thirty Congressmen less. And the moment the reduction is effected, the doom of colored suffrage in this part of the country will have been sealed.

"If the Northern and Western statesmen believe that the heavy representation of the South, in proportion of voting population, ought to be corrected in justice to other States, let them proceed as they think best. As the Atlanta Constitution says about another aspect of the political situation, "the South can stand it if the rest of the country can."

This is from the Columbia Record:

The Washington Star, a Republican paper, which is looked upon more or less as an administration organ, recently printed an article asserting that a large body of Republican leaders have determined to push through congress a measure to reduce Southern representation, because existing conditions are intolerable, in that the South refuses to elect Republican congressmen, but sends a solid delegation which always is arrayed solidly against legislation proposed by the Republican party. It declares that Speaker Cannon is favorable to the scheme, because he made speeches in New England calling the attention of the Democrats of that section to the inequality between Northern and Southern States as to the number of votes required to elect a congressman.

The Washington Post, on the other hand, does not think the constitutionality of the suffrage laws of States will be or can be decided by a partizan majority of Congress, but that if the question is decided at all it must be by the Supreme Court. It may be recalled by some that in the contest of Dantzler vs. Lever in the last Congress the Republican election committee took the same ground. The Republican members, personally, were inclined to hold that the Southern suffrage laws discriminated against the negro, but their partisanship was not strong enough to lead them to attempt to usurp the prerogatives of the court. That will not deter radical agitators from their mischief making, and it remains to be seen whether they will succeed in capturing the conservative element and carrying out their plans.

Under the plan of reduction formerly proposed the result would be:

Arkansas, 6 now, 5 then.
Florida, 3 now, 2 then.
Georgia, 11 now, 6 then.
Kentucky, 11 now, 11 then.
Louisiana, 7 now, 4 then.
Mississippi, 8 now, 4 then.
North Carolina, 10 now, 7 then.
South Carolina, 7 now, 3 then.
Tennessee, 10 now, 7 then.
Texas, 16 now, 13 then.
Virginia, 10 now, 7 then.

That would mean a reduction of 33 members.

—— Judge Parker may consistently run for office again, in spite of his promise to run but once. He can present all kinds of proof that he did not run the last time.—Washington Post.

—— It is a little out of season, but Atlantic Coast Line stockholders greatly enjoyed the "watermelon" which Farmer Walters cut for them on Tuesday last.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—— The President has set the fashion of entertaining labor and capital at dinner. It is strange that no one ever seems to think about giving a dinner to the consumer.—Washington Post.

—— A special to the Washington Post from Parkersburg, W. This interesting bit of news is respectfully referred to the New York Evening Post and the Boston Transcript, with the recommendation that they demand a congressional investigation.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Wilmington Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Wilmington readers.

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly. I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best of results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

— Statesville Landmark: President Roosevelt may change his attitude toward the South, but we have no idea that he will. There is nothing in the man's history, character or temperament to indicate that he will even do us justice. If he does, we shall give him due credit, but this paper for one has no favors to ask.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The cotton market opened with further improvement in point of activity and rallied pretty steady with final price showing slight changes from the closing quotations of the previous day. The opening was steady at unchanged prices to a decline of three points. Immediately following the call the decline was increased slightly, but while there was further talk of an easier spot situation, local spot men received advices from Atlantic coast sections stating that the declines of yesterday were attracting a more active demand, and that interior holders were unwilling to sell at the lower level. This seemed to encourage the bulls to some extent and there was a fair demand. By midday prices had rallied to about the closing level of yesterday, but shortly afterwards broke again on continued hedging, selling by spot interests, while New Orleans also seemed to be selling. But at about the previous low points there was another rally and the market was finally steady at a decline of one point to an advance of three points. Sales were reported of 300,000 bales. The weekly into-sight figures proved heavier than expected but exports were again full and small receipts are expected for to-morrow.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. WINTER'S APPROACH

A day of sunshine now and then, but these frosty mornings admonish us that sable Winter is almost here. That suggests the comforts and satisfaction of one of our modern heaters. We have them this year of every shape and kind—just the one to suit. Or, perhaps, it's a cooking stove or range. We have those too, And the point we are making for them all is that they furnish an even maximum of heat with the greatest economy of fuel.

We are yours just now for stoves and ranges, but all the time for hardware and agricultural implements. Let us serve you.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—It is announced from Raleigh that Secretary Parker, of the Farmers' State Alliance, says work will be resumed to-day, when State Lecturer H. M. Oates goes to Johnston, to reorganize the order in that county, where there are now perhaps half a dozen sub-alliances. The work will be pushed in all parts of the State hereafter.

— Charlotte Observer: The Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post says that ex-Senator Marion Butler is to be an administration favorite and that he may be given a foreign berth. There is no losing Butler, and the chances are that he'll get the best that's going, whether it be an an official position or "influence."

—W B. Rodman, of Charlotte, who has charge of the matter of the sale of the State swamp lands held by the board of education, says that depredations on these lands have been considerably checked and are not so extensive as they have been. Of course there are alway depredations, not only on these lands, but on the lands of private persons.

—It is stated that the estate of the late O. L. Davis, who was killed at Piney Church, Davidson county, by his brother-in-law, Clay Grubbs, is valued at between $12,000 and $15,000. It was thought at the time of his death that Mr. Davis carried several thousand dollars insurance on his life, but this was an error. He had made application for a policy, but the same was not in effect at the time of his death.

— At Raleigh on Wednesday Grand Secretary John C. Drewry, of the Grand Lodge of Masons, stated that the Masonic Temple fund now reaches $100,000 and that $20,000 more is needed. It is decided that work on the building will begin in the early Spring. It may be that a canvasser will then be put to work in the State. Last year the Hon. Francis D. Winston made a very successful canvass.

— Catawba County News: Mr. M. M. Cline was in Newton last week, and in a conversation said he generally eschewed the raising of cotton, but this year he thought he would try his hand. The following was the result: Five bales of cotton, weighing 510, 532, 544, 428 and 413 pounds, and 800 pounds of seed cotton not ginned. Mr. Cline said that he used 400 pounds of fertilizer to the acre, and that his cotton opened two weeks ahead of others in his section.

— The John B. Gordon Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, of Winston-Salem, has accepted the design of Delahunty, of Philadelphia, for a Confederate monument to be erected in Winston-Salem at a cost of $3,000. The monument will have a sub-base six feet square, a total heigth of 23 feet, surmounted by a life-size figure in granite, of a type of the Confederate private soldier. It is proposed to have the unveiling during the month of September, 1905, and make the occasion one of the most imposing ever witnessed in the city.

— On Thursday night Mr. Osmond L. Barringer reached Charlotte in his Oldsmobile, after having completed a run of 105 miles, from Greensboro to Charlotte, in nine hours, without once stopping his engine. So far as the Observer knows, this is the record for this State and it should stand as the first long distance non stop record in North Carolina. As to the roads he said: "Fair, except from Lexington here, when we were at times running hub deep in mud. The last 23 miles, from Concord were covered after dark, without lights, in two hours."

— Charlotte Observer: On account of the unusual atrociousness of the Clarkton crime it was not surprising that there was danger of lynching the perpetrators of it, therefore, it is gratifying that mob violence was averted. While no people are entitled to special commendation for upholding the law, it is, under the circumstances, creditable to the citizens of Bladen county that they did not summarily punish Sellars and Brown. The fact that the law was allowed to take its course and that in due time and without unnecessary delay the men paid the extreme penalty for their crime will doubtless materially aid in discouraging future mob spirit. As it turned out, there is nothing to regret in connection will the fate of the criminals, whereas the hands of many men might have been stained with their blood without any resultant compensation.

— State Horticulturist Harold Hume, of Raleigh says that the tests of different varieties of cabbages at the William Dunn Farm at Newbern are so far succeeding very well. The stand is good and the first week in December the plants will be set out in the field. There are 270 varieties, the greater number of which are unknown in North Carolina. Prof. Hume is preparing descriptive sheets about the apples of this State. These are on cards and a section of the peel of each variety of apples is fastened on the card. The skins of apples preserve their rich colors for a great length of time, even as long as 15 years. Prof. Hume desires the address of all persons in North Carolina who grow pecans or who contemplate growing these profitable nuts. He is preparing special illustrations of the best varieties of pecans. He will put a collection of all the kinds of these nuts in the State Museum.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

WHY YOU SHOULD TAKE WINE of CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is a mild medicine, but a powerful tonic that is unrivalled in its success in the treatment of the diseases peculiar to women.

Over 1,500,000 suffering women have been cured of troubles that ordinarily are thought to require the expensive treatment of specialists, simply by taking this great woman's tonic.

Wine of Cardui recommends itself to modest women of moderate means, because it can be taken in the privacy of the home without submitting to a humiliating local examination and subsequent dangerous treatment.

The treatment is not costly and every sufferer can afford it.

If you are a victim of female weakness in any form Wine of Cardui is the medicine that you should take and you cannot afford to lose any time in starting the treatment. Your trouble is ever growing worse—never better.

Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit even chronic troubles of the most serious nature, and in nine out of ten cases it brings an absolute cure. 1,500,000 cured women endorse Wine of Cardui.

You should take Wine of Cardui. Ask your druggist for it today.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 19.

EXPLOSIONS AT A CHICAGO GAS PLANT.

Four Persons Killed and a Score of Others Injured—All Buildings Near the Demolished Plant Badly Damaged.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Four persons were killed and a score of others were injured by a series of gas explosions that completely destroyed the plant of the Pyle Electric Headlight Company in South Chicago to-day. The shocks of the explosions were so severe that all the buildings near the demolished plant were badly damaged, windows were shattered for blocks, and persons walking in the streets were thrown from their feet. Over-pressure on tanks containing gas is believed to have caused the accident.

The dead—Ralph Wells, superintendent for the Pyle Electric Headlight Company; Amos Watkins, assistant superintendent; George Muehl, draftsman; Thomas Jennings.

The fatally injured—William M. Maloney, blown from third floor of the building body crushed; Alfred Cox, internally injured.

Many persons who were walking in the street near the plant were hurt by flying pieces of debris and were taken to their homes in carriages before their names could be learned.

All of the dead were buried under tons of burning timbers and hot brick and iron, making it impossible to remove their bodies for hours after the accident occurred. Firemen poured water on the portion of the building in which the dead were thought to be buried. The flames were subdued sufficiently to permit of the four dead bodies being removed from the debris.

The scene of the explosion is the old Hyde Park gas plant which passed into the hands of the People's Gas Light and Coke Company several years ago with the consolidation of the gas interests in Chicago. Through leases the big plant is occupied partly by the Pyle National Electric and Light Company, which is largely engaged in supplying illumination for railroad coaches. This illuminant is forced into small retorts which when attached under the floor of a car will supply it with light for months. In order to make this possible the retorts are subjected to an extremely high pressure. It was such a tank that caused the first explosion. Without warning of any kind it burst. Amid the debris workmen were blown out of the structure far into the street about the building. Before any one realized what had happened, retort after retort exploded in such rapid succession that it was almost impossible to distinguish the detonations. There were nine such explosions in all, which left the plant in flames. Hard fighting on the part of fully a hundred firemen finally subdued the flames. The total loss is about $75,000.

SHIPWRECKED MARINERS.

Crew of the Schooner Emily H. Naylor Rescued and Landed at New York by Steamer Grenada.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—After eighteen hours in an open boat six men of the Philadelphia schooner Emily H. Naylor were rescued by the steamer Grenada which arrived here to-day.

The Naylor was abandoned about 300 miles from Bermuda, after a hopeless struggle with the hurricane which passed up the coast last Sunday night. Her sails had been ripped away by the wind, her foreboom broken and water was pouring into her hold in a flood through the center-board box when the crew got away in the life-boat, leaving all their personal effects behind. They had been drifting about for eighteen hours when sighted by the Grenada. The hurried departure left no time to provision the life-boat and the men were in desperate straits when the steamer came to their assistance.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Letter to John S. Mosby Expressing Kindly Feeling to the South.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Col. John S. Mosby received a few months ago a letter from Judge Roulhac, of Birmingham, Ala., commenting on the attitude of the Southern people toward the President personally. Col. Mosby sent the letter to Oyster Bay, as he thought the sentiments expressed in it by a Confederate veteran would be gratifying to the President. He received a reply, which he did not publish during the campaign, as he felt that the President's motive in writing the letter would be misconstrued. The letter is as follows:

"OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1904.

"My Dear Col. Mosby: That is a fine letter of Roulhac's and I appreciate it. I have always been saddened rather than angered by the attacks upon me in the South. I am half a Southerner myself, and I can say with all possible sincerity that the interests of the South are exactly as dear to me as the interests of the North.

"Sincerely yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

STEAMER BURNED TO WATER'S EDGE.

Freighter Mohawk, New York to New London, Destroyed in Long Island Sound.

ONLY ONE LIFE WAS LOST.

All Others of the Crew and Two Women on Board Were Rescued by the Steamer Boston and Landed at Fall River, Mass.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—While bound down Long Island sound on one of her regular passages between this city and New London, Conn., the freight steamer Mohawk, of the Central Vermont railroad, took fire off Horton's Point, L. I., and was burned to the water's edge early to-day. Her crew, except the watchman, was rescued by a passing steamship and taken to Fall River, Mass. It is believed the Mohawk will be a total loss and that little if any of her cargo will be saved.

The Mohawk left New York last evening with a full cargo of general merchandise. She had twenty-five persons on board including two women. As the steamer passed Horton's Point the light-house keeper saw flames breaking from the boat and a few minutes later she was wrapped in flames. Assistance was near at hand in the form of the Fall River line steamer Boston which had closely followed the Mohawk down the sound, and those on board the burning steamer with the one exception noted were soon taken off. The flames had passed beyond all control, however, and she was abandoned to her fate. A few moments after the Boston had resumed her interrupted voyage there came the sound of a heavy explosion and a mass of blazing debris, accompanied by a burst of flames shot up from the centre of the abandoned freighter. When dawn came the steamer was lying fast on the bar off Horton's Point and only a portion of her upper works showed above the surface. This gradually disappeared as the fire ate its way into the hull of the boat. A watchman who was on duty when the flames were discovered failed to reach the Boston when she stood by to give assistance, and it is supposed that he lost his life.

The Mohawk was a comparatively new steamer, having been built at Chester, Pa., in 1896. She was of 2,150 net tons.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Nov. 18.—The steamer Boston brought 27 persons from the Mohawk including 25 of her crew and two women, wives of officers of the Mohawk. The night watchman of the steamer, a Swede named Larsen, was lost. It is supposed he was burned to death.

The Mohawk's men said the fire was discovered by those in the pilot house shortly after midnight. It was pretty well forward and the crew were at once sent to their stations to fight the flames. The great heat, however, prevented them from getting close to the blaze, which spread and steadily drove back those who opposed it until the entire vessel was doomed. The Mohawk's cargo contained a quantity of oil and gasoline.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WRIGHTSVILLE, GA., Nov. 18.—The case of Walker, Price, Outlaw, Morman, Mrs Williams and Mrs. Edge, for the alleged murder of Clayton Williams, previously reported in these dispatches, was called in court here to-day. The case against Williams was postponed.

On motion the court discharged the two women and Morman on the ground of insufficient evidence. They were, however, put under bond to appear as witnesses against Walker, Price and Outlaw, the case against whom will be taken up next week. Intense interest has been aroused in the case and the town is full of country people.

JAPS CONTINUE THEIR ASSAULTS.

But Russian Commander Telegraphs the Emperor Port Arthur Can Hold Out Several Months

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 18.—General Stoessel has telegraphed to Emperor Nicholas that Port Arthur can hold out several months.

TOKIO, Nov. 18., 3 P. M.—A telegram from Moji reports the destruction of another Russian arsenal and magazine at Port Arthur. The Japanese learned, it is said, the location of the arsenal and centered their artillery fire upon it. After dropping two hundred shells in the locality they succeeded in blowing it up. The Japanese are widening their saps and are using them to move their guns forward.

The Russians continue their spirited sorties, using hand grenades in their attacks upon the saps.

Attack Repulsed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 18.—A dispatch from Lieut. Gen. Sakahoriff says that during the night the Japanese attacked the Russian position in front of Poutilioff Hill, but were repulsed.

TRIAL OF NAN PATTERSON.

Two Witnesses of the Tragedy in the Cab Turn Up—Jury Not Yet Completed. Court Adjourned Until Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Although two full court days had been taken up in securing seven of the twelve jurors who will decide the fate of Nan Patterson, the former show girl who is charged with the murder of Caesar Young, the incidents in the court room have tended to keep up interest in the case. The receipt of a letter telling of an important new witness and the finding, during the examination of talesmen, of another person believed to be an eye-witness, were the principal of these incidents. The text of the letter which Mr. Levy received was given out to-day. It was written in German and signed "L. Black." The writer claims to have witnessed the struggle in the cab and says that he saw Young turn the revolver against his own breast and fire.

"I saw with my own eyes, on the morning of June 4th, a man in the cab with a pistol in his hand and a woman was seated along side of him," says the writer. "I saw the man raise the pistol which was in his hand; I heard the shot and I ran as fast as I could. I kept quiet until now because I thought you had other witnesses; but for the sake of the truth I must write you this. I am willing, should occasion demand it, and if you think it worth while, to appear before Mr. Jerome and yourself, and say that I saw the man hold the pistol in his hand. I am ready to take an oath on this for the sake of justice."

The five jurors required to complete the panel were secured to-day. After cautioning the jurors not to discuss the case among themselves and directing them not to read newspaper accounts of the trial, Justice Davis adjourned court until Monday.

During the search for the twelve jurors, eighty-nine talesmen were examined and the defence used twenty-eight of the thirty challenges which it is allowed by law. The prosecution had sixteen of its challenges left when the last juror was chosen.

During the afternoon Foreman Hendrick, of the jury, learned that a member of his family was critically ill and he asked to be excused from jury duty. No action was taken on his request to-day, but the remaining members of the special panel of talesmen were instructed to be present when the case is resumed next week.

CHICAGO TRUCK DRIVERS.

The Strike Spreading—A Clash Between Police and Strike Sympathisers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The strike of furniture wagon drivers, which led to street riots yesterday, spread to-day to other factories in the Furniture Manufacturers Association. Picket lines were established by the strikers and several factories were practically in a state of siege, the guarding unionists warning away drivers of lumber and coal wagons loaded with material and fuel for the beleaguered plants. The truck drivers union, the largest local organization of teamsters in the world, was drawn into the strike of the furniture wagon drivers to-day. Fifteen of the members were ordered to quit work because their employers had refused to sign the wage agreement of the furniture drivers. Seven more firms were temporarily tied up by this action. A trip made by wagons of the Johnson Chair Company, whose drivers were attacked yesterday, caused a clash between the police and strike sympathizers. Stones were thrown and a futile attempt was made to blockade an outlying street. The police were able to disperse the rioters.

A BOY MISSING.

Visitor from Richmond, Va., at the World's Fair in St. Louis

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—Nothing has been learned by the police as to the whereabouts of Stephen Putney of Richmond, Va., who has been missing since Wednesday night from the home of friends with whom the boy had been stopping while visiting the World's Fair. Young Putney, whose family is prominent, had with him jewelry and money to the value of about $500, and his disappearance has caused apprehension of foul play.

Hugh Smith Thompson, comptroller of the New York Life Insurance Company, and former governor of South Carolina who has, been critically ill during the past week, was still alive yesterday.

TO AID STRIKING TEXTILE WORKERS.

American Federation of Labor by Unanimous Vote Comes to Relief of Sufferers.

WITH CONTRIBUTION OF $75,000

Rejoicing in Fall River—Manufacturers Say the Action Will Have No Effect With Them—They Will Not Make Any Concession.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—By unanimous vote the delegates to the American Federation of Labor to-day decided to aid the striking textile workers of Fall River, Mass., to the extent of $25,000 per week for three weeks. If by the end of this time it is found that the strike is not broken the executive council will, if it sees fit, continue the donation. The money for the purpose is to be raised by an assessment of one cent each week levied on each member of every labor organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Stirring and impassioned addresses on behalf of the workers of the Fall River district were delivered. Delegate Driscoll, of Boston, put the motion before the house, which was carried amid cheers of the entire convention. Many delegates arose in their seats and on behalf of the organizations which they represented, offered then and there to hand over to Delegate Golden checks to cover the amount of their respective union assessment.

Delegate Mary Kenny O'Sullivan, of the National Woman's Trade Union League, depicted the scenes there since the strike began. She characterized the conditions existent as more terrible than those attendant on the anthracite coal strike. One meal a day, consisting of soup and two slices of bread, was, she alleged, the fare of 1,400 women and children. To safeguard the virtue of these unfortunate women and protect the health and perhaps the life of the children she prayed that financial aid might be given until the strike could be won.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Nov. 18.—The news that the American Federation of Labor had voted to raise immediately $75,000 in aid of the strikers here was received joyously by the officials of the various textile unions and the strikers in general. The newspapers issued extra editions containing the announcement.

The action at San Francisco is considered by most of the union officials as the only step necessary to enable the strike to be carried to a finish.

It is estimated that it costs about $10,000 weekly to conduct the contest against the mill owners.

President N. B. Borden, of the Fall River Manufacturers' Association, on being told of the labor bodies' action, said:

"The assessment levied by the American Federation of Labor will have no effect whatever on the manufacturers. They cannot and will not make any concession."

Mr. Borden further said the question of re-opening the seventy-five mills next Sunday depends on the disposition of the operatives.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Officers Elected—Resolutions Regarding the Liquor Traffic Adopted.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBUS, O. Nov. 18.—The American Anti-saloon League to-day elected Bishop Luther B. Wilson president and P. A. Baker general superintendent. Bishop Hass, of Jackson, Miss., was elected one of the vice-presidents and Rev. James Cameron, of Blackstone, Va., and G. W. Hawkhurst of Falls Church, Va., members of the executive committee.

The resolutions adopted declare that the "liquor traffic must be regarded and dealt with as a crime;" call upon Congress to make prohibition a condition of statehood, for the Indian Territory, and favor the passage of the so called Hepburn-Dolliver bill "in such form as shall effectively secure to the States power to control the liquor traffic within their own boundaries without interference under the guise of inter-state commerce."

THE JAPANESE PRINCE

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Prince Fushimi, his party and his escort left Washington to-day for St. Louis. Before leaving, on behalf of the prince, A. Sato, grand master of the household of his imperial highness, made a statement expressing the pleasure the prince has derived from his visit to this country, his satisfaction over the sympathy shown for Japan and hoping that his mission of friendship and good will may in some measure be conductive of strengthening that tie of amity and good correspondence which happily exists between the two countries.

As personal gifts from the Mikado, Prince Fushimi sent to Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Hay, wife of the secretary of State, teakwood chests mounted in solid silver, each containing priceless silks, embroideries, fans, carving and other articles of Japanese workmanship.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Fourteen Miners Killed at a Coal Mine in British Columbia.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 18.—A Fernie, B. C., dispatch to the Pioneer Press says fourteen miners were killed at the Carbonado mines near Morrissy this afternoon as a result of a terrific explosion of coal gas. The disaster occurred in No. 1 mine, ten miles west of Fernie. The work of rescue was kept up all the afternoon and all the bodies have been recovered.

Notes aggregating $12,000 on which appears the name, as maker and endorser, of Mrs. Fannie M. McCue for whose murder former Mayor J. Samuel McCue is now under sentence of death, are due and have been presented to the administrator of the estate, Edward O. McCue, of Charlottesville, Va., a brother of the condemned man, who informed the holder that the signatures were not made by Mrs. McCue. Suits will be brought at the December term of the Corporation court.

H. D. Kilgore, travelling passenger agent of the Vandalia Lines, with headquarters at San Antonio, Texas, is dead at the McLean farm near Eagle Lake, as the result of wounds received while duck hunting. The circumstances of the shooting which resulted in Mr. Kilgore's death are unknown.

TRAGEDY NEAR DETROIT.

Man and Woman Found Lying Dead in a Buggy—Believed to be a Case of Murder and Suicide.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 18.—Two night policemen in Wyandotte, 12 miles down the river from Detroit, early to-day discovered a horse and buggy standing at the corner of Fourth and Oak streets with H. J. Hillebrand and Mrs. W. J. Miller, of Detroit, lying dead in the buggy. Both were shot through the head and it is considered by the authorities to be a clear case of murder and suicide. Whether Hillebrand or the woman fired the shots is unknown. A letter found on Hillebrand's person, written to him by the woman while he was in Chicago a short time ago, told of an intimacy between the two and warned Hillebrand that he must be careful of her husband, whom she said had threatened to shoot him if he returned here.

Hillebrand was a bar-keeper. Mrs. Miller had been married only a year and a half. Her husband says he believes her refusal to elope with Hillebrand caused him to shoot her and commit suicide. Miller says his wife told him that Hillebrand had threatened her life once before when she refused to accompany him to Chicago.
